

Final Reminder - Invitation and Programme

International Maritime Law Seminar London

The International Maritime Law Seminar now in its 18th year, will once again take place in London, growing from a small gathering to one of the most eagerly awaited legal events in the City. Boasting an average attendance of more than 250 insurance and maritime law professionals, you and your colleagues are cordially invited to join this enlightening seminar.

Esteemed speakers from various countries will share insights on the most recent advancements in maritime and transport law within their respective regions. The seminar will be organized into multiple sessions, featuring panel discussions and presentations from some of the most distinguished and knowledgeable international lawyers in maritime law.

The International Maritime Law Seminar is a complimentary half-day conference scheduled for 7th November 2023 in London, this year in the Chartered Accountants' Hall, One Moorgate Place where we will have 14 speakers from 13 different countries, addressing recent developments in maritime and transport law within their respective jurisdictions.

The seminar will be divided into three sessions and presentations will be provided by some of the most recognized and qualified foreign attorneys in the field of maritime law.
