The International Maritime Law Seminar now in its 19th year, will once again take place in London, growing from a small gathering to one of the most eagerly awaited legal events in the City. Boasting an average attendance of more than 250 Insurance and Maritime Law Professionals, you and your colleagues are cordially invited to join this enlightening seminar.

The International Maritime Law Seminar is a complimentary half-day conference scheduled for 8th October 2024 in London, this year in the Chartered Accountants' Hall, One Moorgate Place where we will have 15 speakers from 14 different countries, addressing recent developments in Maritime and Transport Law within their respective jurisdictions.

Esteemed speakers from various countries will share insights on the most recent advancements in Maritime and Transport Law within their respective regions. The seminar will be organized with three panel sessions with some of the most distinguished and knowledgeable international lawyers in Maritime Law.
